

Candidate for Election to ESTIF Board of Directors, November 2018

Category: Industry

Stephan Fintelmann

Nationality: German

Current position: Managing Partner at
KBB Kollektorbau GmbH

Professional career and background

Stephan Fintelmann, born in 1963, is managing partner at KBB GmbH in Berlin. KBB is an OEM-producer supplying customers from the heating industry and system integrators with solar collectors and absorbers. He founded the company back in 1993.

Before he passed a training as Industrial Business Management Assistant and a Marketing Trainee Program, working in different branches of Hoechst AG in Germany, Spain and England.

After taking the decision to start his own business in the field of Renewable Energy he studied mechanical engineering to get the technical background. With the reunion of Germany Berlin has been chosen as a good place to found the company.

Stephan Fintelmann is married with four children.

Key qualifications and contributions to ESTIF

- 25 years of experience in the solar thermal technology
- Technical and commercial background
- Experience in export markets